Soft Skills E-QUIZ

Sophia sultana, senior faculty in the Department of English has organized the National level Soft Skills E-Quiz on 23rd & 24th June 2020. The areas of soft skills that were included in the quiz are Communication skills, Positive Attitude, Group Discussion, Decision Making, Leadership skills, Interpersonal skills etc. These skills were assessed to enhance the ability of the students to perform well in the interviews and work environment and to become successful in their lives. On the whole 386 participants from all over India from various universities took part in this quiz.

The quiz helped the students to empower their personality traits to face the challenges efficiently in difficult times. Most of the people spend their communication time in listening. This most used communication skill is not only crucial in interpersonal communication but also affects organizational communication and helps to determine success in education and in careers.

“The better you listen, the luckier you will get.”
